NATIONAL SCHOOL BUS SAFETY WEEK

October 17 - 21, 2016

The theme for this year's poster is:

"Bully Free Zone!"

Please find enclosed copies of this year's poster to help Massachusetts School Transportation Providers promote school bus safety in your city, town or school district. This year's theme, "Bully Free Zone!" – where we strive to keep the school bus a safe place for all school children. We thank the National Association for Pupil Transportation (NAPT), for providing the posters free of charge. We also thank NAPT, the National School Transportation Association (NSTA), and the National Association of State Directors of Pupil Transportation Services (NASDPTS) for promoting school bus safety during National School Bus Safety Week, and throughout the year!

Information about the nationwide poster contest for students in grades K-8 is available at NAPT's website: www.naptonline.org Click on the National School Bus Safety Week link on the home page under Resources for more information about the 2016 and the 2017 Poster Contests.

Here's a few suggestions to help promote National School Bus Safety Week in your city, town, or school district: radio broadcasts, cable television announcements and programs, presentations at school committee meetings, new bus displays at shopping malls, demos of student and/or driver training, "school bus tours," open houses and press releases.

We hope you will find a way to promote National School Bus Safety Week in your city, town or school district! If you would like to order more posters, please fill out the enclosed form and scan & email, FAX or send by regular mail to the STAM office today!!!
